

POP UP Series

In partnership with Cultural Studies, Trent University

April 16 – May 10, 2015

This spring, go to the Art Gallery of Peterborough for a series of talks delivered by faculty of Cultural Studies, Trent University and an exhibition exploring Michael Poulton's Museum of Temporary Art (Kirkfield) curated by Jarret Prescott. The POP UP Series is held at our temporary location of 420 George Street North.

Full Schedule:Thursday, April 16 at 7pm*Dr. Jonathan Bordo

Cézanne in the Mystic North (Thoughts on the Imitation of Nature Today)

Thursday, April 23 at 7 pmDr. Kelly EganA Matter of Projection: Line Describing a Cone by Anthony McCallThursday, April 30 at 7 pm*Dr. Zsuzsa Baross

In Praise of (la) rabbia: Pasolini's and the sentiment

Thursday, May 7 at 7 pmDr. Liam Mitchell

What Can a Videogame Do? Or, Game Art, "In Other Words"

May 8, 9, 10 – POP UP exhibitMichael Poulton: The Togetherness of Things

Curated by Jarret Prescott

Opening Reception: Friday, May 8, 6 to 9 pm

These events are free and open to the public.

For information call the Art Gallery of Peterborough, 705 743 9179 and visit www.agp.on.ca

Media Contact:

Fynn Leitch, Curator

Art Gallery of Peterborough

705 743 9179, ext 2023 fleitch@peterborough.ca